

American Embassy,
Moscow, USSR,
July 24, 1961.

Mr. Lee Harvey Oswald,
Ulitsa Kalinina,
House 4, Apartment 24,
Minsk, USSR.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

We have received your letter of July 15, 1961, in regard to your desire to return to the United States with your wife and to your application for Soviet exit visas.

You will recall that further action on your petition for nonquota status for your wife is pending the receipt from you of a copy of your marriage certificate. One copy is sufficient for this purpose, but others will be required later and so I suggest that you obtain three official copies at the same time.

Very truly yours,

John A. McVicker
American Consul

American Embassy,
Moscow, USSR,
November 13, 1961.

Mr. Lee Harvey Oswald,
Ulitsa Kalinina,
House 4, Apartment 24,
Minsk, USSR.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

I refer to your letter of November 1, 1961, regarding your documentation by the Soviet authorities.

The Soviet passport which you have is the type issued to persons considered by the Soviet authorities to have no citizenship (ilya lits bez grazhdanstva), either of the Soviet Union or any other country. You do not have the passport issued to individuals acknowledged to be foreigners (vid na zhitel'stvo dlya inostrannitsv).

As we have stated before, we are prepared to discuss the renewal of your American passport upon your next appearance at the Embassy. Meanwhile, your continued retention of your present Soviet passport or an extension thereof does not prejudice in any way your claim to American citizenship.

Very truly yours,

Joseph B. Horbury
American Consul
