It is also reported that the picket signs used when the Dallas Theatre Center was picketed in 1962 were made at the home of Robert Surray.

Karin Surray, daughter of Robert Surray, presented a bouquet of flowers to Madam Ngo Dinh Nhu when she visited Dallas. This was supposed to be during an "American Day" celebration. The "American Day" celebration was to counteract United Nations Day.

The American Eagle Publishing Company published a book containing the news stories from the Dallas Times Herald and the Dallas Morning News. The back cover of this book contained a letter on the letterhead of "American Eagle Publishing Company" and was signed by Robert A. Surray, President American Eagle Publishing Company. This book which sells for $6.00 was distributed by the American Book Store Company, 6930 Snyder Plaza, Dallas 5, Texas.

The American Eagle Publishing Company is believed to be controlled by General Edwin Walker. Lt. Jack Revill, Criminal Intelligence Section, Dallas Police Department, reports that he has received numerous complaints that the American Eagle Publishing Company is anti-Jewish, anti-negro, etc. Lt. Revill reports that some organizations from the opposite end of the spectrum try to keep tabs on what the American Eagle Publishing Co. is doing. For this reason, it is possible that Mr. Surray did not want to print the "Wanted for Treason" leaflets at the American Eagle Publishing Company.

On Sept. 30, 1962, Ashland Frederic Burchmell (CO-2-36,662) was arrested in Dallas, Texas, with several guns and a large quantity of ammunition in his car. Burchmell stated at that time that he was enroute to Mississippi to assist General Walker. Burchmell had in his personal effects the unlisted telephone number of Mr. Robert A. Surray. Burchmell also admitted working for General Walker.

DETAILS
SYNOPSIS
Robert Klausne claims he did not talk to Robert A. Surray regarding "Wanted for Treason" leaflets until the day he, Klausne, came to the Secret Service Office in Dallas.
DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION
Reference is made to memorandum reports submitted by Special Agent John Joe Howlett, Dallas, dated May 14 and 15, 1964.
Other Investigations
On May 25, 1964, Robert Klausne was contacted by telephone and questioned as to whether or not Robert A. Surray had contacted him or discussed with him the "Wanted for Treason" leaflets after Surray had picked up the leaflets a week or two before November 22, 1963. He was specifically asked if Surray had contacted him after the assassination of President Kennedy. Klausne stated that Surray had not mentioned the leaflets to him at any time after the leaflets had been delivered to Surray. Klausne stated that on May 13, 1964, before coming to the Secret Service Office in Dallas, he had contacted Surray and informed him that he was coming to the Secret Service Office at our request and that Surray had remarked, "Well, that's the way the ball bounces."
Mr. Klausne stated that if Surray had talked to him about this matter or if he knew anything else that he would gladly tell us, as he feels much better after having visited our Dallas office and telling what he know about the leaflets.
It might be stated here that Robert A. Surray was requested to appear for an interview at Dallas, Texas, with a representative of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, and he declined to do so, with the MARINA OSWALD accompanied interviewing Special Agents in a Bureau automobile to the vicinity of the former residences of LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas. MARINA stated she had never been to the residence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at 1026 North Beckley. Upon viewing this residence, MARINA stated she had often seen this house because it was situated near a bus stop which she and her husband had used.

She stated she had never realized the exact location of the last residence of OSWALD until seen by her on this date.

Interviewing Agents and MARINA traced the route of herself and OSWALD on the night in March, 1963, when OSWALD took from the Neely Street Address his rifle wrapped in a raincoat. This route, as traced by MARINA, is herewith described:

Leave the Neely Street Address and proceed east to Elsbeth Street a distance of  $\frac{1}{2}$  block, then turn left or north and proceed one block to Canty Street, then turn right or east again and proceed one block to Zangs Boulevard. At this point, MARINA is not sure as to whether they proceeded north on Zangs or traversed Zangs and continued to Beckley which parallels Zangs and proceeded north on Beckley. She stated she believed OSWALD caught the bus at the corner where Beckley and Zangs meet which is a distance of three blocks north of Canty Street. It will be noted that at a point two blocks north of Canty, Zangs makes an abrupt northeast oblique and crosses Beckley a block later. MARINA pointed out the fish store and the ice cream store to which she was headed that night. These stores are located a block northeast on Zangs from the point where Zangs and Beckley intersect.

MARINA was questioned again concerning the possibility that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had attempted suicide. She reiterated that she did not have any information to indicate that OSWALD had attempted suicide. She repeated she had seen a scar on his inner left wrist and when she questioned OSWALD about the scar, he would not discuss it.
