FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

ANALYSIS OF LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CALLS
EARL R. RUBY

1. Date 1/14/63

SIDNEY MARKS was recontacted at the Cowan Shoe Store 16 East 34th Street, Manhattan, New York, by SAs TIMOTHY B. LARGONE and ROBERT J. LAWSON and he furnished the following information:

He had given considerable thought to the possibility that a JACK RUBENSTEIN or a JACK RBY had been at Camp Unity, Kingston, New York, in 1947, at the time MARKS was at this camp. The only individual he could recall who might be JACK RUBENSTEIN was an obnoxious person who became friendly with MARK's wife, THELMA MARKS. He described this individual as a "con artist type", who came from New York City. At the time, MARKS had just married THELMA, but this did not seem to make any difference to this individual and MARKS found it necessary to "straighten out this individual" and point out that MARKS did not appreciate his attentions to Mrs. MARKS.

MARKS was not able to furnish a description of the above individual, but his recollection was that he did not resemble photographs of RUBY which MARKS had observed.
