The second investigator arrived in Dallas on June 3, 1963. After making connection with the first investigator, he was introduced to subject Duff. On June 4, 1963, both investigators discussed the assassination of Gen. Walker with subject Duff, and agreed to pay Duff $5,000.00 to assassinate Gen. Walker. At this time both investigators and the subject Duff drove to the area of Walker's home and plans were discussed for the actual assassination, the escape route, the weapon to be used, and method in which the subject Duff would leave the country after the assassination. All of the conversation in regards to the assassination that was discussed with the subject Duff was recorded on a Magnet Midgastape.

The tape recording was played to Gen. Walker on June 5, 1963. On June 6, 1963, Gen. Walker and Mr. Watts decided that they would contact the local police and advise them of the happenings and leave any further investigation to them.

On June 7, 1963, both investigators were advised to meet with Lt. Cunningham and advise him of the happenings. Upon meeting Lt. Cunningham the investigators accompanied him to Police Headquarters where the events were discussed at length with Lt. Cunningham, Capt. Jones and the Chief of Sect., and the recordings were played for those concerned. The results of this meeting were that the Police Dept. would continue the investigation. The recording was left in the custody of the Police Dept. at the instructions of Gen. Walker.

Files of the Dallas FBI Office reflect Mr. R. L. ADAMS, President of Plastelite, 920 Foch Street, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed by SA FRANK J. HUDSON in 1952 in connection with an official investigation. He advised his company was formed on April 1, 1941, with ADAMS as President. At that time it appeared Plastelite was engaged at least in part in the manufacture of certain aircraft parts.

Files reflect SA EARLE HALEY interviewed RICHARD LLOYD ADAMS, 3521 Dorothy Lane, South, Fort Worth, Texas, President of Plastelite (reported as Pastelite) Engineering Company, 920 Foch Street, Fort Worth, on December 9, 1963, in connection with this investigation. Mr. ADAMS informed his firm in August or September, 1963, began the manufacture of a small item called the "twist board" used by dancers in performing "the twist." He informed that in the latter part of September, 1963, he received a telephone call from JACK RUBY and had additional contacts with RUBY thereafter in connection with the sale and promotion of the "twist board."

In interview on November 24, 1963, JACK RUBY advised SA C. RAY HALL he had recently been trying to sell an item known as the "twist board" which is manufactured by Plasti-Lite Products, Incorporated, owned by LLOYD ADAMS of Fort Worth, Texas. The notation "Plaste-Lite, Inc., R. L. Adams, 920 Foch, Fort Worth, ED 5-1266," appeared among numerous items removed from RUBY's person by Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963. Previous investigation has established that a number of telephone calls were made by RUBY to telephone ED 5-1266 during the period September 26, 1963, through November 22, 1963.
