Date July 13, 19641

Upon reinterview, GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH, who still operates a jewelry concern in the Medical Center Building in Medford, Oregon stated that the only other employees of SAM JAFFE he could recall were Mrs. MARIE SHAW, bookkeeper, and BILL MILLER, a salesman. He said JIMMY TRICKER worked about a week for JAFFE but FEHRENBACH recalled that TRICKER had been killed in about February, 1963 in Muncie, Indiana. He expressed doubt as to whether TRICKER would have had any knowledge of any meetings in Muncie anyway.

FEHRENBACH stated that MARIE SHAW "couldn't help but overhear a lot of information concerning the meetings in Muncie while being employed by SAM JAFFE." He said he believes she is still residing in Muncie, but he did not know her address.

FEHRENBACH stated further that BILL MILLER was a salesman for SAM JAFFE, but he does not know if MILLER was aware of any meetings in Muncie while employed by JAFFE. FEHRENBACH added he does not know the present whereabouts of MILLER.

FEHRENBACH went on to say that he feels that MARIE SHAW may have some knowledge of the meetings in Muncie, but he doubts if she could remember JACK RUBY. He said that he feels that BILL MILLER would not recall JACK RUBY.

100-363

Mrs. MARIE SHAW, 1008 North Jefferson, Muncie, Indiana, advised she worked for SAM JAFFEE of Sam Jaffee Jewelers in Muncie, Indiana, for about six and one-half years and her position was that of a bookkeeper. She does not recall the dates of her employment but it would have been in the mid and late 1940s and possibly 1950. When she first began working for him, SAM JAFFEE's business was located on the second floor of an unrecalled address on South Walnut Street and later the business moved to the street floor at 110 East Adams Street.

Also, on the second floor of the South Walnut Street address where JAFFEE had his jewelry and repair store, there were other offices. She recalled there was a doctor's office, a beauty shop, and also an accountant or collector had an office on the second floor. She does not recall anything being on the third floor of this building except a bingo game. She recalls the local police arrested a number of women who were either operating or frequenting the bingo game on the third floor of the building. At the East Adams Street address, she recalls the upstairs was a storage area.

As to any possible communist leanings had by SAM JAFFEE, she advised JAFFEE was a religious person and often talked about God. JAFFEE was a good, honest, dependable person, of good reputation and character and, to her knowledge, JAFFEE never had anything to do with any communist activities. She believes she would definitely have known of any meetings of any kind attended by JAFFEE and she knows of none. The only organization she knows of which JAFFEE attended occasionally was B'Nai B'Rith at Muncie and the other members of this organization had a difficult time getting JAFFEE to attend these meetings. She noted also that JAFFEE had an uncle and aunt killed by the communists in Poland and she is certain JAFFEE would have nothing to do with the Communist Party.

She knows nothing concerning an alleged list of names being in the possession of JAFFEE or anyone else at JAFFEE's place of business or anywhere else on which the name JACK RUBENSTEIN appeared. She knows of no list of names and never saw any such list. She does not recall ever having heard of the name JACK RUBENSTEIN. She has seen pictures in newspapers and on television of JACK RUBY who shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she did not recognize him as anyone she had ever seen or known.

She recalls when GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH worked as an apprentice for SAM JAFFEE and described him as a "screwball". She recalls FEHRENBACH was married to a girl, name not recalled, and FEHRENBACH was dating other women. FEHRENBACH would talk of the other women and was a boastful, braggart type of person, always trying to be a "big shot". At one time while FEHRENBACH was working for JAFFEE, FEHRENBACH stole a bracelet of some type and sold it. JAFFEE learned of this but would not fire FEHRENBACH as JAFFEE stated FEHRENBACH would be leaving soon anyway. At about this time FEHRENBACH was thinking of quitting and going out West. She added that FEHRENBACH liked "to feel important".

She recalls a BILL MILLER who worked for JAFFEE and she last saw him about two years ago at Muncie, Indiana. She believes at that time MILLER was selling some type of cigarettes, possibly Camels. She believes MILLER's parents reside at Muncie, Indiana, however, she does not know their names or addresses.

She knew all of SAM JAFFEE's sons-in-law and thinks two of them had resided in Chicago, Illinois. She does not recall either of them ever bringing anyone to Muncie, Indiana.

WILLIAM EUGENE MILLER, 304 East Dayton Street, South Bend, Indiana, and District Agent, Prudential Insurance Company, 2620 Mishawaka Avenue, South Bend, Indiana, furnished the following information:

He was employed as an apprentice jeweler for SAM JAFFEE Jewelers in Muncie, Indiana, for approximately two and one-half years from about 1944 to 1947. He was unable to recall the exact dates. At the time of his employment he could recall only one other permanent employee who was a heavy set woman whose name he could not recall.

During the period he worked there, a GEORGE FEHRENBACH worked there on occasions on a temporary basis to help out but never on a permanent basis. He understood FEHRENBACH was a permanent employee prior to the time he came there. He recalled FEHRENBACH as an individual who talked a lot and was prone to enlarge on statements he made to the point of exaggeration. He would put very little reliability on what he said.

To his recollection, the store consisted of a jewelry store on the ground floor and the repair shop was on the second floor; however, he was unable to recall whether there was a third floor to this building. He knew of no meetings of any type ever being held in the building, and he knew of no Communist Party meetings being held in Muncie, Indiana.

His impression of SAM JAFFEE was that he appeared to be a fine person and recalls he frequently talked about the minority groups, giving the impression he favored the minority groups. He could not recall any organization of any kind wherein JAFFEE was a member, considered him to be patriotic, and had no knowledge that he ever had any communist leanings.

He recalled JAFFEE had two sons-in-law in Chicago, Illinois. One was a MAX PRITCHARD who was in the restaurant business in Chicago, and the other, whose name he could not recall, was in the music business in Chicago. They visited in Muncie, Indiana, on occasions and he had met them in Muncie through JAFFEE; however, did not know them too well. He was unable to recall either son-in-law bringing anyone to Muncie, Indiana from Chicago, Illinois on any occasion.

He cannot recall ever seeing anyone resembling JACK RUBY in Muncie or in the company of JAFFEE or his sons-in-law. He could not recall seeing or hearing the name of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN while in Muncie, Indiana.

Mrs. MURIEL COLLINS, 3500 Lilac Lane, advised her husband, MERVYN COLLINS, had retired from the Muncie Police Department during the first part of 1947. He then returned to the police department as Captain of Detectives in January, 1948, and retired for the second time November 1, 1950. Her husband died in March, 1952.

She knew a GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH who had married her niece, PHYLLIS SWALLOW. However, she had not known him too well. Date July 17, 1964

Mr. JAMES SWALLOW, Draftsman, Indiana Bridge Company, residence 2920 South Elm, advised his sister, PHYLLIS SWALLOW, had married GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH about 1946. FEHRENBACH had been in the U. S. Navy prior to marrying his sister, and had also been re-called to service during the Korean war. He said they have two children and are presently residing somewhere in Oregon. He has not heard from them for over two years. He never did get along too well with FEHRENBACH as the latter always tried to give the impression he was a big shot.

He recalled FEHRENBACH had worked for SAM JAFFEE, who had operated a jewelry store and had taken training from JAFFEE under the G. I. Bill in an effort to become a diamond setter. He said JAFFEE's store had been upstairs in the two hundred block of South Walnut and later moved to the one hundred block of East Adams. He believed prior to being re-called to service in the Korean war, FEHRENBACH had worked for Warner Gear Company in Muncie.

SWALLOW said MERVYN COLLINS, who had retired from the Muncie Police Department in 1950, had been his great uncle. He had never heard COLLINS speak of any list which might have been turned over to him by FEHRENBACH.

He believed there had been a gambling joint on the second floor of this building but he never visited it nor could he recall who operated this gambling joint. He knew of no union hall meeting place above this location and said it definitely had not been a Jewish meeting place. B'Nai B'Rith, a Jewish fellowship organization, has operated in Muncie, Indiana for a great many years but their meetings have always been at their own temple. He said it is possible SAM JAFFEE could have been an officer in B'Nai B'Rith during 1947.

Mr. PAZOL said FEHRENBACH had been in the U. S. Navy and left Muncie sometime between 1948 and 1952. He had no idea as to where FEHRENBACH went after leaving Muncie. 1. On 26 November 1963 a young Latin American, referred to herein as "D", came to the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City. He claimed he had been in the Cuban Consulate in Mexico City on 18 September 1963 when a man he later recognized to be Lee Harvey OSWALD received $6,500 in cash to kill an important person in the United States.

2. "D" described the circumstances as follows: While standing by a bathroom door about noon he saw a group of three persons conversing on a patio a few feet away. One was a tall, thin Negro with reddish hair, obviously dyed, who spoke rapidly in both Spanish and English. He had prominent cheek bones and a noticeable scar on the lower right side of his chin. The second was a white person whom the subject had seen previously in a waiting room carrying a Canadian passport. The white person had green eyes, blondish hair, with a pompadour hairdo, and dark eyeglasses. The third person allegedly was Lee Harvey OSWALD. "D" was completely convinced of this from published photos of OSWALD following the assassination. OSWALD was wearing a black sport coat, buttoned-up white shirt with short collar tabs, no tie, dark gray pants, and clear eyeglasses.
